20 YEARS

OF GOD'S FAITHFULNESS

A LETTER FROM Iglesia El Jireh

Trinidad, Bolivia

In dark times, the light of Jesus shines even brighter.

Bolivia today is facing deep brokenness. The economy is in crisis. Political uncertainty looms. Drug cartel activity is growing. Abuse, fatherlessness, alcoholism, and addiction are rampant. Hopelessness is the air many breathe. And yet, in the midst of it all, the Church has a mission — to be a beacon of hope.

That's why we recently took time to celebrate something miraculous: Our church, Iglesia El Jireh, has now been shining God's light for 20 years.

If we're being honest, it's a miracle we're still here. There have been many moments over the past two decades when it seemed like we wouldn't make it. Times when we were on the verge of closing our doors for good. But every time, God stepped in. He wasn't done with us.

What we're witnessing now is nothing short of His grace in action.

In just the last month, we've baptized 15 people. Our Sunday gatherings are overflowing—literally. Some weeks we don't have enough chairs. Our air conditioners can't keep up with the heat, and still, people stay. They come to hear the gospel. They come to encounter the love of Jesus. And He meets them.

As we reflect on the last 20 years, we're humbled by how far God has brought us. Through hardship, doubt, and spiritual warfare, God has been faithful. We've learned to lean on Him, trust His voice, and follow even when the path is unclear.

And now, more than ever, we believe God is not finished with Iglesia El Jireh.

He's just getting started.

He has preserved our church for a reason:

To bring restoration to the broken.

To shine His light in a country that desperately needs hope.

To proclaim that Jesus is still the answer.

Maybe you're going through a dark time of your own.

Maybe you've gotten bad news, or face uncertainty that feels overwhelming.

Let our story encourage you today:

God is still God. He still sits on the throne. He still has plans for you.

And yes, He wants to use you — and even your situation — for His glory.

To those who have prayed, given, and walked with us over the years — thank you. Your support has mattered. Your prayers have sustained us. And your partnership continues to bear fruit.

Please keep praying for Bolivia, and for our church. Pray that we will continue to be led by the Spirit, empowered by His grace, and obedient in the mission He's given us. That His will would be done in Trinidad, Bolivia — as it is in heaven.

With grateful hearts,
The Iglesia El Jireh Family
